

Making Final Plans for the SLC workshop which opens this afternoon are Dorothy Culhane, SLC president and the four class presidents. Around the table are Patricia Evans, Iane Flynn, Miss Culhane, Patricia Murphy and Patricia Guay.

College Plans Observance Of Feast of Christ King Sunday

The feast of Christ the King will be observed by Clarkites in the traditional manner this Sunday.

The day will start at 7:30 with High Mass celebrated by the Rev. Clarence Friedman and sung by the student body. Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and continous adoration by the sist of an exchange of problems and ideas be-

Lynch and Mary Lee Steimel.

Julie Kramper heads the temporary

(see FEAST, page 4)

students will continue through-

Chanting the Pange Lingua and bearing lighted candles, the student body will move in procession from the chapel at 3:30 Sunday afternoon to the end of Eliza Kelly hall where Benediction will be given at a temporary altar. The Rt. Rev. S. D. Luby, of the Loras and Clarke faculties, will officiate. He will be assisted by Father Friedman and the Rt. Rev. T. J. Gannon, also of Clarke and eve found the period to afe curtains bob p

are reproducing e

"Ride of Paul Recent

Chooses Ballet State

s ballet sketches cale

ms of Elayne Dovi (a

i and Mary Elain Pai

rd Sheets' super pur

n his "California" u

favorite of King

and Margie Glibe

dette Dreyer and Mr

aw in Modiglissis Br

a provocative come

hile adding a Duty

r their more comme

nen who have take

he print rental gard

for their choice.

is providing the m

that Nancy Kneed

Klein appreciate 8 ard day of class.
Moylan has "Want

Emil Ganso. A me

The procession will then return to the chapel where the Rev. Robert F. Auer, of St. Mary's church in Dubuque, will deliver a sermon.

The Sodality is handling arrangements for the feast. Prefect Rosalie Sullivan has appointed Joanne Grewell and Julia Dsida as general chairmen. Candles for the procession will be prepared by chairman Kitty Wormley, Joan Cronin, Marilyn Fifield, Eleanor

Drama Department Selects 'Tovarich' For Arena Play

Tovarich, a Russian comedy, has been selected for the fall production to be presented Nov. 15, 16 and 17 by the Clarke College Players. Sister Mary Xavier, BVM, chairman of the drama department, will be the director.

Written by Jacques Deval, a dis-Tovarich ran for some 800 performances in Paris and has since been produced and reproduced in almost every city and town in Europe. It was also 8:15 p.m. made into a movie by Warner Brothers studios.

Clarke's production will ed in arena style in the Clarke gymnasium. To the knowledge of the director, it will mark the first time the play has been done using this technique. This method of presentation has necessitated some change in script.

Tovarich is the story of a former general of the Cossack cavalry and his wife, a grand duchess, who voluntarily live in poverty although they have four million francs stored in a French Lost. bank. This money was entrusted to them by the late Czar who wanted his money used for the good of Russia.

The comedy mounts as the general banker's family in Paris, where the pany. Communistic Russians. Eventually Robert Sherwood, translator of Totirely due to the fact that it tells the possible theater to the largest possible meaning of the unpronounceable word audience. which is its title-'Comrade'."

Clarke College, Dubuque, Iowa

Students, Directors Stress Leadership As Workshop Opens This Afternoon

Clarkites will have a chance to see how education prepares a woman for finding happiness in all phases of her life at the annual SLC leadership workshop this weekend.

Guest directors of this year's workshop are Mrs. Albin Rhomberg, Mrs. James Crowe and Mrs. Robert Leader, Dubuque; Mrs. William E. Brown, Epworth, and Miss Mary Elaine Drew, Madison, Wis.

At the opening meeting at 3:45 today they will discuss how women can find happiness on the spiritual, intellectual, emotional and social

This evening's meeting at 7 o'clock will contween the directors and the members of this year's Student Affairs Forum.

A program by which students can better prepare themselves for the difficulties of life will be drawn up at the final meeting at 9:30 tomorrow morning.

Members of the SAF are seniors Dorothy Culhane, Mary Jeanne Rhomberg, Rosalie Sullivan, Patricia Guay, Kay Hoffman, Jeanette Halbach, Mary Jane Orban, Cynthia Craemer, Patricia Donahue, Phyllis Sinda, Rosemarie Roth, Colleen McGinty, Kathleen Morrison, Jerry Adams and Ruth Dunbar.

Junior members include Peggy Fox, Jane Flynn, Patricia Browne, Margaret Drey, Mary Murphy and Carol Dammann.

Sophomores will be represented by Patricia Spaight, Patricia Murphy, Carol Peterson, Darlyne Barnes and Carole Donovan.

Representing the freshmen are Patricia Evans, Geraldine Hanten, Patricia Tegeler, Jean Mason and Judy Dunham.

Preparing Candles for the student procession on the feast of Christ the King next Sunday are Joann

University Players To Present 'Love's Labour's Lost' Here

In its fourth annual appearance betinguished French dramatist and nov- fore Dubuque audiences, Players Inelist, the play was presented for the corporated, national repertoire com-first time in Paris in October of 1933. pany from Washington, D. C., will present Shakespeare's Love's Labour's Lost in the auditorium of Terence Donaghoe hall Monday, Nov. 3, at

> The production is part of the con- Joseph Lewis. cert lecture series being offered by the

In three seasons the Players have chalked up well over three hundred performances of the plays in their repertoire, three of which were presented here: Shakespeare's Much Ado About Nothing and Twelfth Night, and Shaw's Arms and the Man. Now they are off on a new greasepaint safari with a new production: Shakespeare's rollicking comedy, Love's Labour's Launching its fourth season of nationwide touring, Players Incorporated is bringing back to the American and his wife take jobs with a bourgeois scene the traveling repertoire com-Many outstanding theatrical couple have been hiding from the personalities have long lamented the death of the road companies. By piothey are recognized as royal person. neering anew, Players Incorporated is attempting to revitalize a theater world that has too long been centered in one varich, has written in the foreword to city. Today's C. U. actors and acthered to city. the play: "It may well be that the universal popularity of Tovarich is enfrolicsome comedy staged to delight the eve, the ear and the mind. In the Shakespearian tradition the sets aim at artistic brilliance, as do the lighting and costuming. Lighting credits go to James Waring, former Loras student, and period costumes were designed especially for Players Incorporated by

Love's Labour's Lost is a romping, couple or $1.00 per person.

The fifteen actors who make up Players Incorporated are all graduates of the speech and drama department of the Catholic University of America in Washington, D. C. Each actor has had professional theatrical experience and was selected for the current tour on the basis of outstanding dramatic

Delta Sigma to Sponsor 'Harvest Dance' Tonight

Delta Sigma, off-campus fraternity at Loras, invites all Clarkites to attend its "Harvest Dance" this evening in the Loras gymnasium.

Committees for the fraternity's first dance of the 1952-53 school year are under the direction of newly-elected president George E. Murphy. This is not a date dance, Murphy has an-

"Harvest" dancers will hear the music of Jimmy Smith and his band. Tickets are on sale for $1.50 per

Freshmen Chose Student Officers

After two weeks of balloting, the freshmen have selected their class offi. Next Friday Night served as class vice-president, secretary sponsored by the SLC next Friday, and also sociology club president at St. Mary's high school.

Senior class president while at Im-Dubuquer, Geraldine Hanten, is SLC be served in the union. representative. Miss Hanten headed keep the minutes for the freshmen. designer, and Honore Jones, who is in She was formerly president of Immaculata's chapter of the National Honor society. Handling the class purse Jeanette Schuster and Jane Calkins, strings is Donna Becker. Miss Becker music; JoAnn Lake, tickets; Jerry comes from Immaculate Conception Adams, checkroom, and Joanne Joynt academy, Davenport, where she vice- and Helenrose Pearson, rehabilitation. prexied the Student council.

Des Moines, and Jocelyn Halbach, of the dancers. Primghar. Mary Ann Kane, Dubuque, is the new athletic captain.

SLC To Sponsor Halloween Mixer

Music by the Joe Paradiso Trio will President Patricia Evans, Chicago, be heard at the informal dance to be Oct. 31, from 8 to 12 p.m. in Terence Donaghoe hall.

Ticket takers in appropriate Halmaculate Conception academy in Du- loween masks will greet guests, accordbuque, Patricia Tegeler is now serving ing to general chairmen Ann Bitter as freshman vice-president. Another and Kay Hoffman. Refreshments will Assisting the general chairmen with the ICA glee club as president last arrangements for the dance are Ruth Dunbar and Connie Locher, publicity Margery Kramer, of Chicago, will directors, Patricia Sprung, decoration charge of refreshments.

Heading the other committees are

To carry through the Halloween Class historians are JoAnn Klein, theme, masks will be presented to each Schedules for committees are posted on the SLC bulletin board.

in Love's Labour's Lost are Henry Sutton as Sir Nathaniel, Starring Carolyn Jones as Jacquenetta, and Richard Armstrong as Holofernes. The Shakespearean comedy will be presented here Nov. 3 by Players Incorporated.

The Courier, October 24, 1952

THE COURIER

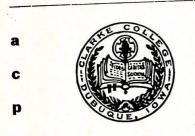

dubuque, iowa

Post Office at Dubuque. Iowa, under the Act of March 3.

1879. $2.00 pet year. Published semi-monthly during the activities fill it with news. college year, except Christmas and Easter holidays and examination periods.

Vol. XXIV Oct. 24, 1952

All-Catholic Honors - All-American Honors

Editor-in-chief_____Marie Petrone

editorial staff

Associate editor_____Phyllis Sinda In the College Light . . '. Managing editor_____June Kuba News editors_____Joan Madden
Mary Alice McCarville Feature editor____Patricia Spaight Sports editor_____Mary Jo Howerter Radio editor_____Janet Harrington Proof editor_____Janet Lucy Art editor____Karen Bender

business staff

Business manager____Dorothy Cunningham of the National ___Ann Dunbar Circulation manager _____

reporters

Marlene Francel, Kathy McSweeny, Ruth Daily clared Catholic

Hats off to the "Sisters at the desk" who help make it possible for us to enjoy our evening permissions. "They also serve who only stand and wait."

Dubuque students would certainly

miss the evergreen sentinels which flank

Clarkites Study Trees

Here's How We Stand! The Courier is your newspaper. You to. But frankly, we're stymied.

paper. Once in a while we find out that you have definite out that our local readers know the political you have definite opinions about your paper. We think this is fire to the course the Course reiterate it. paper. We think this is fine. Sometimes out having the Courier reiterate it. you disagree with us. If so, we can usuc just as we think when we write.

thinking. Already we've formed many fairly and accurately. p opinions. Unless you tell us that your ideas oppose ours, we will keep and add to our present editorial policy.

dates. Our answer is that we would like final decision regardless of the way you

We have weighed the merits of both candidates and have come to think that We who beat out the news on Courier each is less important than the people he pewriters are awards bimedif with We also feel typewriters are aware that this is your paper. Once in a while we find the people included that our local readers know the political

To the people outside our school who ally trace the source of the disagreement read the Courier, our editorial policy repto our editorial page. That's okay too. resents campus thinking as a whole. We It shows you're thinking when you read, think that on the issue of national elecust as we think when we write.

tions, the campus is too divided to let and we're looking forward to the Continuous fairly and accurately.

We do have opinions, however.

we think the feether you at least afternoon and Saturday morning quiet the yearbook has brought you at least afternoon and Saturday morning quiet We've been asked if the Courier will two valuable realizations. First, the hours. take a stand on the coming elections, meaning of democratic procedure has hit supporting one of the presidential candi- home. Each of you must support the voted. Secondly, you can better appre. ciate the fact that publications (and other such services) don't just come about. They mean that someone is do. ing a great deal of work.

and You?

We think the publications could use a little more cooperation. For instance, do you consider our deadline when mak ing up agendas or holding elections? You see, we like to write in the future

And that isn't all.

We're proud of our SLC workshop,

We think some of our upperclassmen We think the recent controversy over have poor memories when it comes to

We'd like to see another kitchenette shower-and better treatment of the equipment we already have.

We want a full appreciation of our honor system. If we think someone is doing an especially good job, we'll be on hand to congratulate her. If things go the opposite way, we'll have something to say about that too.

One of our hopes is that we'll hear SPECIAL WEEKS ARE SET ASIDE to CREDIT FOR THE BIRTH OF NFCCS from you. We like a good argument. pay tribute to everything from kindness can be attributed to Manhattanville col
We appreciate compliments. And we're students representing colleges and uni-versities in the New York metropolitan up to its meaning: a messenger. Your area decided that there was a definite messenger at that.

Since then the Federation has become the tion of a women students' dormitory at official representative of the American the University of Paris.

> YOUR INTEREST IN NFCCS is comparable to that of the American voter in his Congress. A clearing house for literature and information ranging from the suggestion of the American bishops council, Oct. 19-26 has been de-Youth Week. Unity, Sanctity and Action, the theme of this week, aims

Of NFCCS in Youth Programs to animals to good books. Now at the lege in New York. In 1937 a group of crazy about suggestions.

by Mary Jo Howerter

chestnut." But it's impossible to ima- an emperor's garden. They are the ginggine Clarke without its trees, almost 700 kos, often called maidenhair trees be-

Mary Murphy Emphasizes Role

Miss Murphy

to focus the nation's attention on the need for sound youth programs. Groups of this nature now include over six million young Americans served by the National Newman Club federation for students attending non-Catholic colleges, the National Federation of Diocesan youth councils (usually known as CYO Catholic College students.

AN ANNUAL STYLE SHOW is one of way to organize a debate team to the Clarke's contributions to NFCCS. Much prerequisites of a happy marriage, of the profits of the show, to be held this NFCCS is your official national repreyear on November 13, will become part sentative. Since the purpose of NFCCS of a $50,000 scholarship fund set up by is an exchange of ideas, our question NFCCS for foreign students too poor to should not be merely "What does continue their schooling. In the past NFCCS do for us" but also "What can most of these students have attended we do for NFCCS?" Despite its nation-American colleges. Now more emphasis al and regional character, however, groups) and the National Federation of is being placed on schools in their native NFCCS is still comparable to a school countries. Newest project is organiza- club.

need for unity among Catholic students.

Catholic college student. It now includes over 200 member schools.

We're Sure That We Shall Never See Clarke College Campus Without a Tree You might be able to picture Evange- large portion of Eliza Kelly campus. line without a "forest primeval," or the There are three trees on Eliza Kelly village smithy without a "spreading campus which are worthy of a spot in in number, scattered over the 50-acre cause of their fan-shaped leaves, which are imported from Japan and China.

Olive Trees Grow on Campus Olive trees, usually cultivated in the the walk on Angel campus. Who, if not warm climates of Asia Minor, are doing the hardy spruce and the plucky fir, quite well in the Iowa soil on the Clarke would guard the entrance to Mary Fran- campus. Located on Eliza Kelly campus, ces Clarke hall day and night, winter the Park and in the rear of MFCH, the and summer? Freshmen have the stag- trees, whose branches are traditional horn sumac with its antler-like branches symbols of peace, are grotesque in form to stand watch in front of Rose O'Toole but have fragile silvery leaves. Of Chinese import, the ailanthus. commonly called the tree of heaven, is appear. And if it weren't for the varied col- represented by the clump of trees which lection of trees at Clarke how would shades the Clarke college plaque at the last year's senior class on the rear campus at Clarke, are cultivated.

Angel campus. In width they vary from a descendant of the tree on which Judas name, it adds grace and beauty to the birch, honey locust, black walnut and Angel campus. In width they vary from a detection was believed to have hanged grounds in front of Terence Donaghoe fruit trees such as the apple, plum and

This tree is easily recognized by its pinkish-purple clusters of flowers which Examining Leaves tree on Eliza blossom in early spring before the leaves Kelly Campus are Nancy Steffen and Jane

No Poison on This Tree

Another tree with a poor reputation is really not an ash tree since it belongs students in the nature study class im- corner of Seminary and Locust. The since the days of Socrates is the hemlock, to the rose family. press other Clarkites with their intellect- ailanthus was introduced into America like the one near the walk leading to the around 1820, but when it produced its round on Angel campus. Contrary to tified the trees growing on the Clarke I prowess?

Trees on the Clarke grounds range in offensive smelling fruit it was cut down. common opinion, hemlock poison comes campus. The largest number, they have campus. The largest number, they have campus. Trees on the Clarke grounds range in one lists size from the Clarke grounds range in one lists size from the dwarf juniper planted by Now only sterile members, like the ones from the fruit of the herb and not from the hemlock tree.

The largest number, they size from the dwarf juniper planted by Now only sterile members, like the ones the hemlock tree.

the thin poplar near the tellis courts is all trees to the white oak tree which shades a himself—the red bud or Judas tree. hall. Near it is a mountain ash, which crab apple.

Maudsley. They are members of the nature

Each fall student botanists have iden-Also represented are the maple, elm, of MFCH to the 70-foot sycamore on of MFCH is the right in front of MFCH is weeping willow has a sad mulberry, linden or basswood, larch, and because and because Life at 4:10 each Annuaur; Accu Adrian for sports news and commenta in first sports news and communes his "Ir. os Bill ()Meara conunues and lates froote, providing the lates long with pop runes ever) bah a new idea and program on Pastpone Contest Deadline The Press dub contest which we schooled to end Friday, Oct. 17, he secure we definitely, according p president Phyllis Sinda. A futus and the vill be announced.

Consessants may still submit entri a three drisions—short story, poet and essay. The contest is open to a salens with the exception of Lab rm saf members. ART SUPPLIES and PAINT McMahon Wallpaper & Pai

Co., 544 Main. Model Wallpapers and Pa Co., 950 Main. ervin-Williams, 560 Ma In State Paint and Wall per, 1585 Central. AUTOMOBILE DEALERS Bird Chevrolet Company, BAKERY GOODS Dirie Cream Donut Sh

Trausch Baking Company

CLRK Log Offers Variety; Aims To Please Every Taste

by Janet Harrington

Variety in every radio subject from music to news commentaries will be coming your way if you tune in to station CLRK. Several new features have been added to the CLRK log, and they're yours to listen to every afternoon from 3:30 to 5 at the presidents of the four-year independ-

Station manager Donna Koppi has appointed an executive staff of six to assist her in operating CLRK. Main concern of assistant manager Barbara Conlin is determining schedules. Directors of music, publicity and promotion are Mary McGhee, Mary Dalton and Mary Lynch. Kathy Bahl is program director.

Daily feature is a new five-4:55 newscast from November to May,

A Consigning of the consigning of the consigning of the consistency of the constant of the con

And that isn't all

TO See. We like to with the see that the see Me 16 Diong of of M. 8. 16 Diong of our off G Me te brond of out of the Me to brond of the brond of t abated for it when words it come

We think some of our wife

Ac boot memorion of the state o enoon and samples when the see have We'd like to see another to ipment we gliesely pass

We want a full appropriate

TOI SAZIEM. If he thing to

If an especially good job by id to congramlate but life opposite way, we'll have ne of our hopes is that at n you. We like a good appreciate compliment by n short, we want the Come to its meaning: a mountain of a women students' doz

OUR INTEREST IN NECOS

ble to that of the American Congress. A clearing hour in and information ranging in to organize a debate trant

equisites of a happy =

CS is your official national t

tive. Since the purpose of N exchange of ideas, our que

ld not be merely "What

CS do for us" but also "War

o for NFCCS?" Despite is sa nd regional character, br

CS is still comparable to as all services botanist day

The second of the part of the University of Paris.

zy about suggestions.

senger at that.

say about that too.

Three Loras college students have joined the CLRK staff to present point of view. At 4 p.m. Tuesdays Bob Kaliban presents "Kal's Korner," while at 4:30 each Thursday, Red Far. Huber and Margie Gildner. rell gives sports news and commenta-Friday.

Both a new idea and program on

Postpone Contest Deadline

scheduled to end Friday, Oct. 17, has van. been extended indefinitely, according to president Phyllis Sinda. A future

Contestants may still submit entries rum staff members.

Miss Koppi

Other new CLRK programs this men" by Julie Kramper; "Five Centuries of French Music;" "Music Won't Hurt You" by Mary McGhee sports and platter chatter from a male and Rita Mootz; "Requestfully Yours" by Dolores Dolan and Patricia Kilday and "Ten Top Tunes" by Mary Ann

"Coffee 'n Cream" is a new Sunday ries. Bill O'Meara continues his "In morning broadcast conducted by Karthe Groove," providing the latest en Bender and Marie Petrone. From Loras news along with pop tunes every 9:30 to 10 the girls spin records of Clarkites Air Views music from hit Broadway and Hollywood shows.

Continuing her program of last year air are "Rhythm Scenes," by which minded" Clarke upperclassmen. Janet Lucy weaves a travel mood through records, and "NFCCS on the Air" by Mary Murphy. "Sleep Incorporated" is station manager Donna put in a good word for their parties Koppi's program, which closes CLRK broadcasting each week.

Faculty Members Attend Conventions

Sister Mary Anne Leone, BVM, Clarke president, and Sister Mary Roberdette, BVM, treasurer, will attend a meeting of the Iowa College foundation Oct. 30 in Des Moines. ent colleges in Iowa.

The national meeting of the American Dietetics association held in St. Paul, Minn., during the past week was attended by Sister Mary St. Clara, star gazing seemed to be . . . BVM, chairman of the home economics department.

Sister Mary Anne Leone attended a meeting of the problems committee of the midwest unit of the National Catholic Education association in Chicago Oct. 13. Purpose of the meeting was to plan the agenda for the annual convention to be held in Chicago in March. Sister Mary Francine, BVM, registrar, was also present at the meet-

Mrs. James Crowe, director of admissions at Clarke, represented the college at the national convention of the Association of College Admissions Counselors in Des Moines Oct. 13-15. Also attending were Sister Mary Crescentia, BVM, dean, and Sister Mary Michail, BVM, director of publicity.

At Political Meeting

Clarkites who are "madly for Adis Peggy Fox. In addition to her "Sil- lai" or ready to "hike with Ike" have ver Fox" show, she now reports SLC an opportunity to express their politinews. Sodality events are narrated on cal preference through the Young The Press club contest which was another show by prefect Rosalie Sulli- Democrats and the Young Republi-Old favorites that are back on the are open to all "donkey and elephant-

> Weekly meetings, held at the Dubuque post office, enable members to by participating in discussions concerning various timely issues.

-as the editor sees it \dots

happens here in fashion last weekend, but even Clarkites who saw Leo Carroll in reel life at the soph movie Saturday and in real life at the Loras play Sunday were surprised to find him in the role of the man who came to dinner Monday. We might add that since his appearance in all three mediums, Mr. Carroll is now known locally as "star of stage, screen-and the Clarke dining room."

something new has been added . . .

to Clarke life since the turn of the century. According to one alumna who watched with interest the number of Lorasmen who took part in the homecoming skit, what we've got now is obviously "progressive education."

heard any bloody tales? . . .

of army life recently? If so, it's probably a result of Romie Gales, Bud Coffman and Jim Cash's visit to Carol Dammann. The boys' stories of their experiences found an interested audience in all the girls they met. And before leaving, they found that life in the army and life at Clarke have at least one thing in common—people really mean it when they sing, "Oh, how I hate to get up in the morning!'

biggest hit of the world series . . .

was made by Sally Kelly at the Founder's Day picnic, when she cans of Dubuque. These organizations interrupted a group of fans listening excitedly to a portable radio to ask, "When does Minnie Minoso come up to bat?"

open doors, open arms . . .

and other usual features of open house played second fiddle to political fervor this year. Instead of the traditional candy, Lyndall and Lorraine Bodner offered their guests Eisenhower buttons. (Tasty? The one we tried got stuck in our throat.)

in the republican headquarters . . .

of MBH on open house night we found JoAnn Klein hugging her favorite stuffed animal and almost crying because "some Democrat tried to get away with my elephant!"

with no party affiliations . . .

but with definite partying intent, Phil Sinda and Jeanette Sullivan found a unique way of getting acquainted at the Loras IFTA mixer. But even for such a patriotic pair, urging boys to register and vote sounded a little peculiar coming from two "too young" politicians.

moments of deadly silence . . .

were the response of Karen Bender, yours truly and guests recently, when directions to get to Eagle Point park got fouled up and the whole party found themselves gravely visiting St. Joseph's cemetery.

profiting by her loss . . .

is Roni Silverstrand, who's learned a lesson in thrift from misplacing so many chapel veils. Roni now buys black veiling by the yard and cuts it to size.

logically speaking . . .

there's a difference between the way men and women think, but Father Lang had a hard time figuring out why a logic assignment that he'd given to Loras clerics had resulted in complete agreement of terms, while here the same assignment threw his class into a mild uproar. "Tell me," Father said, as he interrupted the debate, "is this typically feminine?"

cutting of capering and cavorting . . .

should be a serious business at CLRK if announcers obey the new station rule book. On the subject of cuts, the book has this to say: "Draw the index finger across your neck as if slitting your throat. Be sure to execute this signal with precision . . . it is meant to inspire absolute silence.'

in the groove . . .

is where we thought Bill O'Meara wasn't when he asked over CLRK, "Did you know Jenny kissed me?" . . . until he quickly followed with . . . "is being presented at the Loras theater."

overheard at the loras mixer . . .

by Pat Spaight was a thoroughly mixed up Lorasman, who asked a Clarke freshman, "Are you one of those tuckpushers?"

minute news spot with campus Hour" presented on Mondays from 4 news edited and gathered by to 4:30 by Mr. Fred Syburg, director Marlene Francel. Following the of CLRK. 15 minutes of dinner music will be year are "Introduction to the Freshbroadcast by Mary McGhee.

the CLRK agenda is the "Short Story deadline will be announced.

in three divisions-short story, poetry and essay. The contest is open to all students with the exception of Laba-

Directory of Patrons

ART SUPPLIES and PAINTS McMahon Wallpaper & Paint Co., 544 Main.

Model Wallpapers and Paint Co., 950 Main. Sherwin-Williams, 560 Main.

Tri-State Paint and Wallpa-per, 1585 Central. AUTOMOBILE DEALERS Bird Chevrolet Company, 600 Iowa.

BAKERY GOODS

Dixie Cream Donut Shop, 549 8th Ave. Trausch Baking Company, 25 S. Main.

Hilldale Dairy, 36th and Jackson St.
Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ketoff, 1106 University.

DANCING del Mar School of Ballroom

Dancing, 552½ Main.
Phone 2-7250 or 2-7259.

DEPARTMENT STORES

Edwards—"In the Heart of Downtown Dubuque," Main at Seventh.

Roshek's-Iowa's Greatest Department Store-8th and Locust. Stampfer's, 8th and Main.

DOCTORS Medical Associates, 1200

DRUGGISTS Torbert Drug Co., 100 Main.

Byrne & Neyens Co., 1199

Crescent Electric Supply Co., 769 Iowa.

ENGRAVING AND CUTS Yonkers Engraving Co., 251 W. 6th.

Sexton Quality Foods, Chi-

Broadway, Milwaukee 2,

Western Grocer, 90 Main. Ludescher Market, 1897 Sem-

Quality Supply, 150 South-

Diamond's Grill, 9th and

F. M. Jaeger, 622 Main.

Central. Sears, Roebuck & Co., 520 Main St.

INSURANCE Murphy Insurance Agency, 615 B. & I. Bldg. C. I. Snyder, Mason City.

INTERIOR DECORATORS Hal Judge, 599 Main. John C. Kaiser Co., 1420 Dodge.

The Newburgh Company, 1895 Marion St. LUMBER

Midwest Lumber Co., 7th and Jackson. Peter J. Seippel Co., Locust

Buehler Bros. Markets, 920 Dubuque Packing Company,

Main. 16th and Sycamore.

Hurd-Most Sash & Door Co., Harrison and Dodge

W. D. Deckert Co., 898 Cen-

Klauer Optical Company, 405 American Trust Bldg. Kies and Butler, 972 Main.

PAPER DEALERS Newhouse Paper Co., 1300 Iowa

The Hoermann Press, 498 Main.

Locust. Telegraph-Herald, 401 8th

G & M Roofing and Sheet Metal Works, 2247 Univer-

SHOES Barker's Shoe Store, 823

SOAPS and WAX Midland Laboratories, 210 Jones.

TAXICABS
Black & White Cab Co., Telephone 2-1818. TRANSFER, STORAGE

Clark Transfer, 2197 University. WHOLESALE Capital Tobacco Corp., 175 W. 32nd.

Stampfer's Bakeries. ELECTRICAL BANKS American Trust & Savings, 9th and Main. Cleveland. BEVERAGES Cosley Bottling Co., 141 Lo-Coca-Cola Bottling Co., 441 CAMERAS FOODS Allied Camera Center, 1369 Central. Lorenz Laundry, Dry Clean-Wilberding Cleaners, 449 Main St. Dubuque Lumber & Coal Co., "The Tullys" Eagle Point. Fischer & Co., Inc., 300 Iowa Thos. Flynn Coal Co., 3rd St. Thomas J. Mulgrew Co., 197 Jones CONTRACTORS and ENGI-NEERS FURNITURE Dubuque Plumbing & Heating Co., 1395 Washington. Iowa Engineering Co., 335 GRILL Main.
Schueller & Co., General
Contr., 61 W. 30th.
Conlon Construction Co., 240 Main. HARDWARE on-"C and and tree since is his DAIRY PRODUCTS

Main. Main.
Dr. V. G. Connelly, 216 B. &
I. Bldg.
Dr. Leslie FitzGerald, 718
Roshek Bldg.
Dr. Henry M. Willits,
D.D.S., 719 Roshek Bldg. MEATS MILLWORK MILL SUPPLIES MUSIC Doty-Zahina Music Center, 16th and Main. OPTICIANS Beatrice Foods, 2167 Central Weber Paper Company, 136 Main. Wis.
Paul Friedman, Food Distributor, 1359 Mt. Pleasant Keller Fruit Co., 25 W. 13th PHOTOGRAPHERS Hruska, 1135 Main. PRINTERS Schuster Printing Service, 544 B. A. Railton Co., Chicago. ROOFING Peter Takos & Co., 472 Main Geisler Brothers, 532 Locust Main Roussell Hardware Co., 2206

Lois West's Room Is 'a Dream' Clarkites Agree at Open House

A pair of cheerful drapes, a harmonizing spread, a dash of color and one large portion of genial atmosphere. Mix these ingredients with several fond remembrances of home and you have the recipe for Clarke college's dream room.

The annual open-house contest to discover the kind of room ate your own little home away fashioned. She also has red and white from home. In fact, the recipe seersucker pillows on a quilted bed spread. is a simple one.

are accented by a red leather chair father. and red lamp shades. Her two bulletin boards are trimmed with red and green ruffles to correspond to the nar- the requisites for a dream room was row ruffle on her drapes.

Use Colored Pillows

The outstanding feature of many of O'Toole hall. the rooms this year, and one which was an asset in Lois' room is the couch-like effect achieved by several colored pillows lying casually on the

Julia Dsida is runner-up in the

Dubuquer Elected National President Of Clarke Alumnae

Margaret Rose Pohlman, Dubuque, was elected national president of the Clarke College Alumnae association at tional president of the organization, succeeding Bonnie Hogan of Chicago.

Mrs. Pohlman has previously served as vice-president of the association and also as president of the Dubuque Clarke club. Active in civic and social organizations in Dubuque, she has been chairman of the Iowa scholarship committee of International Federation of Catholic Alumnae since Frances Mitchell Miller, the first vice- Morrison, WAA president, is general president, is from Rochester, Minn.; chairman. Eileen Clifford Blaine of Chicago, is the second vice-president, and Mary entertainment committee assisted by Duhigg Neary of Omaha, Neb., is the Peggy Fox and Geraldine Hanten. third vice-president.

Mary Helen Oktanski, recording sec- Kathleen Martin. retary, is from Peoria, Ill. Genevieve Fisher Stack, treasurer, is from Chi- Sweeny are in charge of the habilitacago, and the new editor, Pauline tion and re-habilitation committees. Murray, is from Cedar Rapids. Helen Holmberg, Dubuque, was appointed clude the evening's entertainment.

The Clarke College Alumnae association numbers over 2500 members in Leader Lectures on Art 42 states, 12 foreign countries and At Midwest Colleges

Sophs To Defend Championship Title In Volley Tourney

"Play ball!" called Mrs. Wilbur Dalzell, physical education instructor, and the volleyball season was underway. Practice for the annual volleyball tournament began last week.

All but three of that team have re-

In order to secure points in this sport for an athletic award, Mrs. Dal- lege. zell has announced that each student must attend four practices. About 50 girls from all the classes have already

According to Mrs. Dalzell, the tournament is scheduled as follows:

Nov. 11-Freshmen vs. Juniors Sophomores vs. Juniors

Nov. 13-Freshmen vs. Seniors

Sophomores vs. Seniors

Nov. 18-Juniors vs. Seniors

Freshmen vs. Sophomores 28, Nov. 4 and Nov. 6.

most Clarkites prefer has been MFCH contest. An unusual feature of completed and the results of the her room is the seersucker fabric from voting prove it is possible to cre- which her white ruffle curtains are Camille Potenzo, whose room was First place winner in Mary Frances another favorite, has carried out a rich Clarke hall is Lois West who has mas- gold theme in her room. Both drapes tered the technique of simplicity in and spread are of a gold print which her room on cloister. Matching drapes blends with her maple furniture, a gift and spreads of green and black check which she received recently from her

Group Rooms Rate

Proof that a group room can have discovered in the freshman residences in Mary Bertrand hall and Rose Winning the MBH title for the second consecutive year is a room now occupied by Donna Becker, Bonnie Brewer, Susan Meister and Jo-Bo, a large brown monkey statue. In this cheerful room, brown corded spreads and brown print drapes are set off by yellow dresser trimmings and a yellow rug. In ROH the red color scheme is dominant once again in a four room dorm occupied by Pat Goff, Frances Giroux, Ann Foley and Dorothy Olsen. Their bright print plastic drapes star of two past Clarke-Loras operettas, harmonize with their red chenille spreads.

Since a college room is often a its biennial reunion Oct. 10-12. Mrs. place to study and recreate as well as Pohlman will serve as the 15th na. a place to catch those precious moing project, this dream room recipe, this year's performance. is always a success.

Ghosts 'n' Goblins Slated As WAA Entertainers

Ghosts and goblins will greet guests at the WAA's annual halloween party Other newly elected officers are next Thursday evening at 7:30 in the from various sections of the country, activity room of MFCH. Kathleen

Mary Jeanne Rhomberg leads the Chairman of the refreshment commit-Corresponding secretary Eleanore tee is Margaret Prout, aided by Pa-Rossiter, is from La Crosse, Wis.; tricia Hofferd, JoAnne Sullivan and

Eloise Kaufman and Kathy Mc-

A drawing for a door prize will con-women will hear lectures by Mr. Rob- archers and peddlers. ert A. Leader, of the art department, within the next two weeks.

You" on Oct. 29 to the student body of Mount Mary college in Milwaukee, Wis. Concerning contemporary art forms, the talk will stress their implications in the life of the young Christian.

all tournament began last week. At Mount Mercy college in Cedar This year's sophomores are the de Rapids on Nov. 4, "The Artifacts of fending champs for the volleyball cup. the Indians of the Southwest" will be Mr. Leader's subject. This discussion will be in conjunction with an Indian Art exhibition to be held at the col-

Student Artists Make Field Trip to Chicago

art club members who took last week. Hogan, Jane Maudsley and Ann

Main point of interest on the trip R. R. Donnelly company, publishers are Connie Locher, Patricia Kraus, of Time and Life magazines. The Rita Jo Walsh, Lois Connelly and group also visited a design show at the Geraldine Ryan. There will be general practices Oct. Merchandise Mart and toured the Art

Entertaining in her "Dream Room" is Lois West, far right. Guests are, left to right, Patricia Browne, Carole Donovan and Julia Dsida.

Announce Soloists For Clarke-Loras Cast of 'Robin Hood'

Senior soprano Mary Jane Orban, will play the feminine lead in Robin Hood, the third annual production to be presented by the two college glec

Formerly cast as Mabel in Pirates of ments of slumber, it is little wonder Penzance and as Yum-Yum in The that such artistic pains are taken to Mikado, Miss Orban will appear as make sure that this small homemak. Lady Marian, a ward of the crown, in > een as Edith in last year's operetta, will take the soprano role as Annabel, widow's daughter. Dame Durden, the widow, will be portrayed by Marilyn Fifield, sophomore mezzo-soprano.

outlaw Allan-a-Dale.

Thomas Boyd, Loras freshman, will play the title role as a tenor. The Sheriff of Nottingham will be baritone Jack Rhomberg, who is an instructor at Loras academy. Senior tenor Loren Kula will represent the sheriff's ward, Sir Guy of Gisborne.

Cast as outlaws are Loras sophomore James Cover and senior James Klinger. Both were bass soloists in Pirates of Penzance, Cover as Samuel and Klinger as the police sergeant. This year they will appear as Will Scarlet and Friar Tuck, respectively. Glenn Pickart, a junior, will sing the baritone role of Little John.

To complete this cast of medieval characters will be groups of villagers, ciate editor will be senior Lois West.

England at the time of Richard I is Heading the largest yearbook comthe scene of the operetta, which will mittee as altar committee which includes June Kuba, Janet Harrington, Judy Dunham, Sue Kelly and Donna Becker. On the main altar committee are Mary Jo Howerter, chairman, and Honore Jones, Mary McCarville and Dolores Dolan.

Feast

(from page 1, col. 2)

Banner and ribbon decorations for NFCCS Makes Plans & Siliza Kelly hall will be arranged by For Annual Style Show Eliza Kelly hall will be arranged by chairman Jean Spink. Assisting her will be Grace Stenz, Rita Pink, Camille Potenzo, Marilyn Splear, Joan Mad-NFCCS-sponsored style show have den, Lily Esquivel, Dorothy Olsen, been announced by Marjorie Costello, letin boards.

What To Read? What To Read? See Clarke New Reading List With the publication of the Clarke College Reading List, students will no longer be in a quandary when it comes to selecting a book to read. Over one thousand suggestions for reading pleasure pertaining to almost any subject are catalogued in the 136 rage spiral-bound book which was published by the faculty last week and is now on sale in the suggested and annotated by faculty

The reading list divides titles and authors of books under their respective subjects. The book is divided into six sections: religion and philosophy, science, social science and psychology, history, fine arts and literature. Books for each division were college bookstore.

Mary McGhee, a junior who was Spires Voted In; Pat Johann Names Staff Members

Following the vote of the student in the opportunity it offers to make Suzanne Kelly, contralto, will make body favoring an annual as this year's her first operetta appearance as the SLC project, staff editors for the Spires have been announced.

Editor-in-chief Patricia Johann, sen-supervision, Miss Johann will also take care of all layout and art work. Plans for a theme are still indefinite.

Miss Johann

Assisting the editor-in-chief as asso-Two midwest Catholic colleges for milkmaids, outlaws, king's foresters, Miss West is now arranging the schedule for senior formal pictures.

> icial editor is Jane Flynn, junior. Financial duties include senior drama major and general chair procuring subscriptions and senior drama major and senior dr procuring subscriptions and advertis- man, six Dubuque schools have been ing, although fund raising direct supervision of the SLC. Mary They are Immaculate Conception, St. Co. Jeanne Rhomberg will be in charge of this department.

> Completing the editorial staff are Mary Jo Howerter, sophomore, and Marie Petrone, junior. Miss Howerter will serve as picture editor and Miss Sinsinawa, Wis.; Immaculate Concepterone will be converted and Miss Sinsinawa, Wis.; Immaculate Concepterone will be converted and Miss Sinsinawa, Wis.; Immaculate Concepterone will be converted and Miss Sinsinawa, Wis.; Immaculate Concepterone will be converted and Miss Sinsinawa, Wis.; Immaculate Concepterone will be converted and Miss Sinsinawa, Wis.; Immaculate Concepterone will be converted and Miss Sinsinawa, Wis.; Immaculate Concepterone will be converted and Miss Sinsinawa, Wis.; Immaculate Concepterone will be converted and Miss Sinsinawa, Wis.; Immaculate Concepterone will be converted and Miss Sinsinawa, Wis.; Immaculate Concepterone will be converted and Miss Sinsinawa, Wis.; Immaculate Concepterone will be converted and Miss Sinsinawa, Wis.; Immaculate Concepterone will be converted and Miss Sinsinawa, Wis.; Immaculate Concepterone will be converted and Miss Sinsinawa, Wis.; Immaculate Concepterone will be converted and Miss Sinsinawa, Wis.; Immaculate Concepterone will be converted and Miss Sinsinawa. Petrone will be copy editor.

Chicago was the destination of eight Sue Powers, Mary Dougherty, Mary regional secretary, and Mary Murphy, senior NFCCS delegate. Miss Costello and Miss Murphy will serve as co-Main point of interest on the trip Remainstation chairman is Erma chairmen of the show which has been was a specially arranged tour of the O'Neill. Members of her committee advanced to Thursday evening, Nov.

Karen Bender has been named Rosemarie Roth will design the bul-tricia Browne will handle tickets, and Jane Calkins will plan the music.

committees set up for that purpose last year. The compiling of the books was done by Sister Mary Philippa, BVM, Sister Mary Lucilda, BVM, and Sixer Mary Ignatia, BVM.

Improve General Education

Purpose of the reading list, according to Sister Mary Philippa, who was general chairman of the reading list committee, is to encourage students to improve their general education by wider reading, especially in fields outside their major interest.

"Other advantages of the list," Sister Mary Philippa pointed out, "lie suggestions to friends of books that will be profitable and interesting, and in the suggestions it gives for building up one's own personal library.

Spiritual Reading

ior, received her appoint-"Especially recommended to all stument at the dents is the section devoted to religion honors conand philosophy. Good, thought-provocation last voking spiritual reading should be May. In charge of over-all staff part of the daily regime of every Catholic," Sister remarked.

Dramatics Director Is Critic Judge For Play Festival

Miss Anna Helen Reuter of Chicago will be the critic judge at the second annual high school play festival to be held here Nov. 8. Miss Reuter is di rector of dramatics at the Immaculati and Alvernia high schools.

According to Marianne McCarth Joseph, Loras, Visitation and St. Co lumbkille.

Other schools invited to participate are Sacred Heart, Bernard; St. John Bancroft; Xavier, Dyersville; St. Clark tion, Davenport; Campion, Prairie Chien, Wis.; Our Lady of Angels Clinton; Aquinas, La Crosse, Wis.; Joseph, Des Moines, and Sacred Heart, Monticello.

The one-day festival, sponsored by the Clarke college drama departm will follow the same schedule as Jav year. Sister Mary Anne Leone, BVN. president, will open the day with an address of welcome. After the individual ual schools present their plays Reuter will give a critical analysis of the productions and advise the dents and the directors. In late after noon the directors will attend a round table discussion, while the students in being entertained at a social hour is the gymnasium and the union.

Tovarich is the driver they driver the driver they driver they driver they driver they driver they dri

Russian Con As Players' Clarke's gymnasium

original presentation of t the Clarke College Playe weekend. Performances Nov. 15 and 8:15 Sunc

Written by French pla Jacques Deval, and prese der the direction of Sist Xavier, B.V.M., chair the drama department, T tells the story of Prince M his wife, members of a displ san nobility. As a result of lution in their homeland, th France with a great sum of n trusted to them by the late C used only for the good of R

Those who viewed the recatt appearance of the Dor chorus here will be introd Cossack company. He is th a former Cossack general, be played by Jim Morrey, of his wife, the grand duchess land, or the potential by Maria

French Are Employers from Markey and Ro and Fernande Dupont, the fernande Dupont, the fernande Dupont son and fernande Mariorie Costel J. Barney Double Son will be thought eth and Marjorne Down. Ay Volphin with selection to the couple leads the couple couple, leads the van fund for their own ends. for their steams the var

Des Moines Conver apresident of the America Culhingham to Cunhingham to fice to the America of Ic mingham serve as the meetings at t